I had read Jenny Colgan in her earlier days when she published as Jane Beaton and remembered enjoying her writing and I was very satisfied with this Quick Read of 130 print pages. The small island of Mure off of Oban is in dire need of a doctor with the vacancy advertised for eight-months without a single applicant.

A Very Distant Shore follows how they all get on... The story was neither as predictable or chick-lit esque as I had imagined and is more about a community supporting each other and finding hope in even the most trying situations. A very decent switch-off read in which the background details were well filled out and it wasn ' t simply a romance.
