I bought the Capresso 114 last December (the difference being, the model 112 has chrome trim and a very questionable milk reservoir). This machine is unbelievably finicky; you must use an extremely coarse grind (according to the manual), and almost zero tamping pressure (again, according to the manual), otherwise you get unbelievably slow ...

While evaluating espresso makers online and reading reviews, I cam to the conclusion that Capresso 112 was the best value for my needs. I liked the look of the machine - very classic, almost bahaus design. When I disinterred it from its box, I was excited by the look but wary of the machine's weight.
