The Arbitration Law Handbook collects together in one volume the laws in force in more than twenty countries, with the main procedural rules used in each of those countries. Each section has a short overview identifying relevant treaty obligations, the main

First published in

imprint of Taylor &

International law of
foreign investment is
a field of public
international law that
has attracted
considerable attention
from practitioners,

Get Free Factoring

academics, and policy-makers in the last two decades. Its key characteristic is the extent of substantive and procedural decentralisation: while often sharing certain structural elements, both substantive obligations and mechanisms of international dispute settlement are mostly

opposable only
between the particular
parties, even when
expressed in multilateral form. This makes a clear and
comprehensive
overview of the topic
particularly important.
The second edition
adopts a new
structure that better
reflects the
concurrence of

various reform proposals with the fairly stable stratum of instruments that inform the current practice. With this systemic dynamic in mind, the selected documents are divided into three parts: Past, Present, and Future. The Past sets out the legal background to modern investment protection law. The Present provides generalist international law materials (sources and responsibility), a selection of the more important instruments with substantive investment rules, and rules of international dispute settlement regarding investment

protection. The Future (new for the second edition) lists a number of possible directions
of future
development,
including a variety of
approaches that
maintain the
traditional procedural
kernel of investor-
State arbitration as well as proposals for more significant change, with non-State actor involvement in dispute settlement either rejected or moulded into a judicial mechanism. This highly regarded book is aimed at teachers, students, practitioners, and policymakers in the area. It can be used both as a

practitioners'

handbook and as a
classroom companion
for courses on
international dispute

law.

This publication is the

arbitration in Argentina. It provides a complete description and analysis of the historical and contemporary structure of arbitration law and practice in the country, which is based on the UNCITRAL Model Law. Its chapters are authored by many of the most regarded Argentine authorities, many of whom are responsible for drafting Argentina's current arbitration regulation.

Throughout its thirty-one chapters, the book covers an ample number of topics in commercial and investment arbitration, and an exhaustive analysis of arbitration in different specific fields (energy, sports, consumers, among others). Some of the topics addressed in this book include the following: regulatory framework of arbitration in Argentina; arbitration agreements; arbitral proceedings and the applicable law; issues of arbitrability; interim measures; costs and

and the MERCOSUR.
This publication also includes some particular studies, for example those related
to the tensions
between investment
arbitration and human rights, as well as the

relationship between
the country and the

Although mainly
focused in Argentina,
the discussions

contributions exceed

in Argentina has seen
