Let me now turn to to the word 'Practical' in the title. The fourth edition marks a major break with the tradition of the former three: instead of the straightforward, alphabetical listing of individual entries throughout the entire book, it introduces a reorganization of the entire core material into thematic sections: 28 in the grammar part, and 3 sections for vocabulary, the last of which, as its name ('Word Problems from A to Z') suggests, retains the PEU trademark, alphabetical ...
