Gary Soto grew up in Fresno, California, as part of a close Mexican-American community. Soto has kept it alive in his poetry, essays, and fiction. He says that writing about second- and third-generation Mexican-Americans is, to him, writing about "the particulars of the world."

In 1970, Soto attended Fresno City College.

In 2014, Soto received the Phoenix Award for his 1994 children's book Jesse. The award committee stated: " Jesse is both a coming-of-age story of one Mexican-American boy with a poetic sensibility and the story of a community and a country at a difficult time—facing poverty and prejudice and war, problems we are still facing today.
