Intellectual property rights of pharmaceuticals is governed by patent law. India being a signatory of the GATT is governed by TRIPS, apart from having its own national IPR laws. Moreover, with the introduction of compulsory licensing and ever-greening strategies, patent laws have become more sound and comprehensive.

When IPR petitions are filed, they are assigned to different technical centres—for classification purposes—based on the subject matter of the challenged patent. Bio/pharma patents are assigned to technical centre 1600; as of September 30, 2015, 305 out of a total of 3,578 IPR petitions (nearly 10%) were classified under this centre.
