Warning: This book contains explicit language and explosive sex. It is an adult romance and not intended for anyone under the age of 18. Liam Christianson is the devil-may-care, rhythm guitarist for Bayou Stix, the hottest rock band around. He's a playboy and likes to do things his way. No regrets. He knows that women love him, and he uses that to his advantage. He's cocky and shallow. Or so it seems. Clove Rodrigue is the baby sister of Liam's bandmate and friend. She's a sweet, fairly innocent young woman who was dealt a bad hand and became a victim of circumstance. After finishing culinary school, she returns home to Baton Rouge. She finds herself living under the same roof as Liam and they quickly realize they are like oil and water. He hates how perfect she is, and she can't stand his treatment of women. Both Liam and Clove are accustomed to letting others see only what they want them to see, each hiding behind false pretenses. What happens when polar opposites realize that their hatred of one another is really attraction? Will they succumb to the allure? What happens when the things that you fight so hard against are the very things you need the most in the world?

When his girlfriend decides to give their baby away, seventeen-year-old Sam is determined to keep him and raise him alone.
