" A tree with strong roots laughs at storms " Malay Proverb The whole Universe is made of energy. The human body represents a magnificent dynamo within this energetic field. Countless healing systems have acknowledged the fact that health and wellness are created by the harmonious interaction of internal energy, called Chi (Qi) – in Chinese, Prana – in Hindu, or simply put Life Force – in universal language. The chakra system is a part of our subtle energy map and it plays an extremely important role in our physical, mental, emotional and spiritual healing process. In our body, the chakra system is starting at the base of the spine and ending on the top of our head. When there is a blockage in any of our chakras, we need to be aware of the fact that the whole system is out of balance. Also known as Muladhara (in Sanskrit), the Root Chakra is the first chakra, located at the base of our spine. In Sanskrit, Mula means Root and Dhara means support – this is the base of the Kundalini Energy. This is why the first chakra is associated with the material, physical and financial plans. It vibrates to the color red. The Root Chakra is connected to safety, security, survival, physical needs, our physical identity, support and solid foundation for living our lives. Indulge in this amazing lecture about your Root Chakra: - find out the influences of the first chakra and how it affects our body - recognize the symptoms of an over-active, under-active and properly balanced Root Chakra - learn different healing techniques, from crystal therapy and essential oils, to foods and physical connection to your body - remove your anxieties and fears - release whatever no longer serves you further growth - make peace with your past, so it won't affect your future Manage your life and current situation properly, by getting to the "root" of the situation.
