What Should I Expect in my PADI Enriched Air Nitrox Course?

The PADI Enriched Air Diver course is PADI ' s most popular speciality scuba course. Why? Because scuba diving with enriched air nitrox gives you longer no stop dive times, especially on repetitive scuba dives. If staying down longer and getting back in the water sooner sounds appealing, then don ' t hesitate to become an enriched air diver.

PADI Enriched Air Diver - Hidden Depths Scuba School
Most modern scuba equipment and dive computers can be used with enriched air, but your PADI Instructor will let you know if your gear meets manufacturer recommendations and local requirements. However, scuba tanks must meet oxygen service standards and be dedicated for use with enriched air. You ' ll practice using oxygen analyzers and special cylinder decals.
