The last time he'd seen Adam and Quinn dance, they'd been using the back room of the relatively deserted local YMCA. Now it was a real dance studio, with real dancers, and a parking lot full of real cars.

The fourth instalment of the elemental series was by far one of the best so far. This book was different than the rest of the elemental series, not because the main character had a different sexual preference, but because it tells you the struggles about the character and more about the Merrick family.
