Morrison's short essay, Strangers, explores the preconceived notions that people make of others, and questions why this is. The narrator meets an old woman by a river one day and they instantly connect. She is old and wise, and he grows to be very fond of her in the fraction of a day they spend together. When the man returns the following day to find that the woman is not there, he is very disappointed and begins to think of the way people judge others.

Analysis of Toni Morrison's Novels. By Nasrullah Mambrol on June 11, 2018 • ( 4 ) In all of her fiction, Toni Morrison (February 18, 1931- August 06, 2019) explored the conflict between society and the individual. She showed how the individual who defies social pressures can forge a self by drawing on the resources of the natural world, on a sense of continuity within the family and within the history of a people, and on dreams and other unaccountable sources of psychic power.
