This book was bought as a textbook for a course I was taking. I have since added it to my library. The following is from a book review I turned in for class. In Called to Teach: An Introduction to the Ministry of Teaching, William Yount has dealt with both the subject of teaching as well as the teacher.

The book mostly concerns itself with Joe's climb up the New York Yankees ladder and his effort to both come to grips with his father while trying to get out from under Raz's shadow. Although you miss the Dodger players from the previous novels like Roy Tucker, Karl Case, Red Allen and others, this is well worth reading for the message of reconciliation it carries.
