A young French student's idealism attracts him to a charismatic leader but because he is from a well-to-do family and the other followers are lower class he becomes disillusioned. He is aimless and is unable to decide what to do with his life and becomes estranged from his friends.

Young Man in Chains by François Mauriac - Goodreads
It deals- very briefly-with Jean Paul, a rather miserable, romantic young man, during some months of self-imposed isolation and loneliness, disaffection from his friends (in particular Jerome, a "skilled Hunter of Souls" and his proletariat cause) and the girl Marthe he is to marry.
